

Station :	ABC Far North	Program :	Rural Report
Location :	Cairns	Producer :
Aired On :	27/11/2009 6:36:18 AM	Duration :	4 mins 47 secs
Compere :	Adam Stephen	Summary ID :	W00037018859
Interviewees :	Ramy Azer, CEO, Papyrus Australia
Mentions :	CSRIO
Mentions :	CSIRO

Stephen says Papyrus Australia claims it has finally commissioned the first ever manufacturing plant to turn banana tree trunks into fibre and sheet products. Ramy Azer, CEO, Papyrus Australia explains the process in getting the plant set up, noting that the financial world crisis slowed down the plans. Azer discusses the nature of the plant which is low carbon emitting and low energy using and the future plans for the company.